2017 Pam Simpson Peace Award

Project Horizon is requesting nominations for the 2017 Pam Simpson Peace Award. In honor of the late Ms. Simpson, former Project Horizon board president, the award is intended to recognize extraordinary contributions by an individual or organization that has furthered the mission of Project Horizon and worked toward the elimination of domestic or sexual violence through education, advocacy, direct services to clients, financial support, volunteer work, or legislative activities. The recipient may be recognized for a specific contribution of great magnitude or for a body of work over an extended period of time.

Nominations may be for individuals or organizations. The recipient must be a resident of the Project Horizon service area or a resident of Virginia who has made a significant statewide contribution. Current Project Horizon board or staff members and their immediate families are not eligible to receive the award.

In order to be considered for the 2017 award, nominations must be submitted by September 7, 2017 to Judy Castele at ph@rockbridge.net or 120 Varner Lane, Lexington, VA 24450. Nominations should include name and contact information of nominee and name and contact information for person submitting the nomination, as well as a short narrative detailing how the nominee has worked toward the elimination of domestic or sexual violence through relevant work, activities, or achievements.
